Despatch No. 2.

Rec'd St. Dept. March
Recorded

United States Consulate
Shanghai China January
28th 1860.

Sir:

I have the honor to inform you, that, Charles Jackson - a citizen of the United States - died intestate at this port on the night of the 21st instant. The letters found in his trunk show that he was a resident of Boston in the state of Massachusetts. He arrived here in the American ship Star King from New York about one month ago. The physician pronounced his disease to be consumption. His effects consist of a few articles of clothing and $53. in money, and all of which are barely sufficient to defray the expenses of his burial, disease, and physician.

I enclose you a notice of his decease published in the North China Herald at this port, (Enclosure No. 1) -

In addition to the effects

above mentioned, there are a small gold watch and chain, two pair of silver sleeve buttons, one pair of gold sleeve buttons, one small breast pin, one daguerreotype of a lady and two young children, and a few books consisting of Shakespeare's plays, a bible, and prayer book, and all of which Messrs. Wetmore, Williams & Co. (an American house at this port and at whose house the deceased died) will forward by ship to Boston, under my Consular seal in order that the same may reach in safety the right of Kin of the deceased.

I have the honor to be

Sir

I have the honor to inform you that S. Sacomit, a citizen of the United States, died at this port on the 12th instant.

Mr Sacomit came to this port several years ago and has acted as a pilot at this port. He died at the hospital without effects, and the expenses of his burial was paid by public charity. His disease was consumption.

From the best information I can get I am of the opinion he was a native of the State of Vermont, but what part thereof I cannot learn.

I published a notice of his death in the North China Herald at this port. (enclosure No. 1).

E v

United States Consulate
Shanghai China
April 26th 1860

Sir

I have the honor to inform you that the trade at this port with the Chinese has materially diminished during the last few weeks, and the usual trade at this season of the year is virtually suspended.

The rebels, it is credibly rumoured, are withdrawing to a certain extent from Nankin and dispersing in parties over the adjacent country. The results of these movements is that they take possession of a wider tract of country and hovering along the borders of this Province make it hazardous for the Chinese Merchants to keep up their trade in the interior.

Connected with these movments of the Rebels to create more or less alarm and ill feeling, may be mentioned the impending hostilities

hostilities between Great Britain and France and the Government of China.

The British and French forces are now arriving in this vicinity preparatory, as I am informed by rumor, to their proceeding North in the course of a few weeks. What will be the effect of their movements upon the Chinese mind, it is out of the question to foretell.

I have no doubt but that the Chinese Authorities and the well informed Chinese regard the government of the United States and its citizens as friends, but, in case of an outbreak I presume the mass of the Chinese would regard all foreigners in the same category, and in such case in my judgment the Chinese Authorities would be utterly powerless to maintain order and afford the necessary protection protection to the lives and property of citizens of the United States at this port.

There is a large amount of property at this port, afloat and ashore, belonging to citizens of the United States, and the same is accumulating because of the suspension of the trade. This port, being nearer to the movements of the rebels and to the anticipated theatre of hostilities than the other open ports, it will be very apt to feel the effects thereof the soonest.

I have, therefore, thought it proper to request Commodore Stribling to send a man of war here immediately. He has not yet visited this port.

Sir

I have the honor to enclose you my account for salary for the quarter ending this day, with certificate of attendance on duty (enclosure No 1).

I have credited the Government with the fees received during the quarter amounting to $345:87/100 and drawn my draft on Messrs. Baring Brothers & Co. London for $654:13/100 balance of my salary for the current quarter.

I also have this day drawn my draft upon you at fifteen days sight acceptance waived for $133:95/100 the loss in exchange on sale of my draft upon Messrs. Baring Brothers & Co. for the above mentioned balance, as per enclosure No 2, and for which I ask protection.

Sir.

Enclosed please find my account for Judicial services while in China which has been recognized by Congress.

My salary due from the 1st July 1853 to 1st Jany 1856 say $500. I drew on the department for in favor of A. Gogg Co of Shanghai, The exchange in same was $350. The draft was protested, and I was obliged to redeem it exchange & all I was then in Cash, & addressed Genl Thomas Asst Secty of State on the subject. The department recognized the justice of my claim them & estimates for it in their next report to Congress, the same has been done each year. Because that draft was not paid I did not draw for the year 1856 & therefore I have not been compelled to meet any loss in Exchange for that amount. On Jany 1st 1856, my health & that of my family became so much impaired that I was obliged to leave temporarily for the U.S. I was absent from my post seven months, I employed M. P. Fish Esq. to act for me giving to all his services my entire salary as U.S. Consul $3000 per annum. Interlocutory orders & decrees & all such business as pertains to a Court in Chambers was performed by him but the great bulk of the causes were docketed & were not tried till the Aug. Sept & Oct terms of the year 1856 at which time I had resumed my duties. The Annual return of the U.S. Commissioner for the year 1856 will show this.

your Department is in the possession of all the facts in relation to the small amount due me, and it has been estimated for over & again, but I am compelled to make out my account again and request that it be certified to by the Dept.

The loss in Exchange on one draft was $350. I met with the loss & therefore should be reimbursed.

M. W. Fish Esq. I employed as Vice Consul & for his services I authorized him to draw for the full salary as Consul $3,000 per annum, he did so. My contract with him was specific, it has been cancelled long ago. No part of the Judicial Salary can be due to M. W. Fish Esq as he was employed by me, the selection & the terms thereof being approved by the Dept of State.

The approval of my account by your Department will much facilitate my settlement with the U.S. Treasury and I shall again be under obligation

Sir

I have the honor to enclose you herewith (enclosure No 1) the Annual Report of the trade and commerce of this port for the last year.

American commerce at this port for the past year is greater than the previous year. The tonnage is larger as well as the imports and exports. This commerce owes its increase, in a measure, to the opening of the Empire of Japan to foreign trade. There has sprung up a considerable coastwise trade, and which is stimulated into greater activity, no doubt, by the active interchange of commodoties between Japan and China.

The Tai-ping rebels have triumphed over the Imperial forces before Nan Kin, broken the lines lines, and, over-running most of this Province, they have taken possession of many populous and wealthy cities and among others Chang-Chow where the Governor General resides and Soo-Chow which is the largest emporium of silks, Crapes, and Satins in the Empire. The latter named city is about seventy five miles distant from this port. How these movements will effect foreign commerce now rests in conjecture.

My impression is, that foreign Commerce in this valley of Central China is destined to equal the most sanguine expectations. It will remain dormant however, until the English and French difficulties with the Imperial Government are satisfactorily adjusted.

The cause of the present paralysis in business at this port, is attributable to these difficulties difficulties. Monies and munitions of war have been diverted to the North for the immediate service of the Emperor which, otherwise, would have been available to enforce his authority in this Province.

If a well appointed, well armed and well drilled foreign force of fifteen thousand is indeed necessary to force the Emperor to terms, then, I think it is a legitimate deduction of human reasoning to say that he, when left undisturbed to his own resources and institutions, is abundantly competent to enforce the supremacy of laws over a people who, along a line of generations extending beyond four thousand years, have been taught to revere them even with the same sensation that the child does the parent, and whose chief weapons of war, moreover, are simply the gong, gingall, and the common

Despatch No 34 Rec'd Jan 1861

United States Consulate
Shanghai China
November 3. 1860

Sir

Referring to Despatch No 18 under date of April 26. last, I have the honor to inform you that, in compliance with my request Flag officer Stribling reached this port the last of May with the U. S. ship Hartford, with Mr Ward the U. S. Minister on board. The U. S. ship Saginaw had arrived here a fortnight previous from San Francisco, and was still in port when the Hartford arrived.

Both ships remained here until July when they moved North to the Gulf of Pecheli with the Flag officer and Minister on board.

All through the month of June there were constant indications of the approach of the Rebels to Shanghai; but, they did not make their appearance in

Louis Cass
Secretary of State.

in force. Occasionally stragglers and accomplices here were caught by the Chinese authorities and punished.

During the month of July the Rebel army attacked and took possession of many large cities in this Province, and among others Chang Chow, the capital or seat of Provincial authority. It is situate about two hundred miles from this port in the direction of Nankin. There the Governor General resided. He fled therefrom in compulsion, and finally, with a remnant of his guard reached Shanghai. Soo Choo a city of two millions of souls and eighty miles distant from this port towards Nankin - also fell into the hands of the Rebels. Their army, divided into sections, moved over this Province to the four points of the compass.

Early in August, two several

several communications, purporting to be from their Commanding Officer at Soo Choo, addressed to the Consuls of the United States of America, Great Britain, and France, were placed in the hands of H. B. M. Consul at this port by some unknown Coolies. The Communications were not opened. Immediately thereupon Proclamations were exported in various parts of the port in the Chinese language and from the same officer. These proclamations notified all concerned of the approach of the Rebel Army upon this port, with the view of capturing the city of Shanghai and seizing the reins of the local government.

The Intendant of Circuit (Taotai) having secured the assistance of Military force from the Ministers of Great Britain and France then at this port, in all amounting to about one

one thousand rank and file, took measures to defend the city of Shanghai and incidentally the foreign settlement. Barricades were erected in various parts of the settlement, and all of which is outside of the Walls of the City. The Chinese migrated, with such of their valuables as they could take with them, to Ningpo and other ports and places down the coast. It is supposed their number reached to one hundred and fifty thousand. The foreigners ashore removed to the ships in port, more or less valuables, and measures for self protection were adopted in case of attack.

Believing that the Flag which I have the honor to carry at this Port ought not to be seen either in the Camp of the Imperialists or Rebels, but, should continue, as theretofore, to occupy neutral ground, I so gave notice, and on the 1st of August issued a proclamation, a copy whereof I herewith enclose (enclosure No. 1).

In the meantime, I advised citizens of the United States to remain at ease in their homes and houses provided with all the means of protection they could command in case of attack, or, if necessary go aboard of American vessels in port. I also requested the Chinese Authorities to afford all the aid and protection provided for by the Treaty. I also notified the Flag Officer and the Minister of the actual approach of the Rebel Army in a dispatch sent by the Saginaw which had returned from the Gulf of Pechelee to this port for the mail, and the Commander of which vessel, Capt. Schenck, sent ashore, before leaving, such weapons of defense as he could dispense with, for the use of citizens of the United States.

The

The Rebel Army, supposed to be about twelve thousand strong, with a very large number of banners was noticed on Saturday the 18th day of August from the Walls of the City. In the afternoon of that day they drove in an outpost of Chinese Imperial soldiers following them close up to the South gate, and undoubtedly would have then entered the City at that point, if they had not been fired upon by a guard of British soldiers stationed there. As it was, they were repulsed from that gate, and by night the Rebel Army had extended its line parallel with the city and about two miles westerly therefrom: and the line was about two miles in extent, as indicated by their Camp fires. This line of position they occupied until Friday of the following week, having during that time received an addition to their number of some five thousand from the direction of Yiadding a place about thirty miles to the South of this port, when the Army moved off, and the Commanding Officer issuing a proclamation that he should have taken Shanghai if it had not been defended by the French and English; but, as he did not desire to war with Foreigners at that time he retired, and giving out that he should soon return and conquer all.

Whilst the Rebel Army was before Shanghai, detachments were sent out to reconnoitre from their camps and to force the gates of the City if possible, but not to bring on a general engagement: and they were constantly being fired into by the guards on the walls. The suburbs were burned by Imperial orders, the fire raging

raging all the week. When the re-inforcement arrived from Kiading the Rebel army extended its line and crossing Soo-Choo creek it was evidently their intention to surround the City and Settlement and burn, massacre, and rob, indiscriminately. A British man of War then commenced throwing shells, with fortunate precision and telling effect, over the entire settlement into the Rebel camp. This mode of warfare was unusual to the Rebels, and produced the greatest consternation. It checked their advance.

Flag officer Stribling reached Shanghai with the Hartford the last of the week, and the Saginaw came in with the Minister Mr Ward on the afternoon of the same day.

The Flag officer at once sent ashore a detachment of Marines, Capt. Garland in command to afford aid and protection to the lives and property of the citizens of the United States as a guard: and this guard remained ashore about one month, the expenses of barracks &c. amounting to five hundred dollars has been cheerfully and promptly paid by the Intendant of Province.

The Flag officer with the Hartford and the Minister aboard of the Sacramento left this port on the 5th of last month, the former for Japan and the latter for Hong Kong.

Since then the peace of this port has not been disturbed by the Rebels. They still hold however, possession of a large portion of this Province, and command the avenues to the Tea and Silk Districts, which, for the greater part as I am informed, are yet in

in their possession or under their Control. This disturbs the trade and the exports of Teas and Silks are therefore very limited.

The leaders of the Rebels give out, I am told, that they are willing and anxious to come to an amicable understanding with the Foreigners. It has been thought by some, that the Allies would quiet the rebellion after they have finished their work at Pekin, at which place they now are. And that it would be necessary for the Allies to do so in order to restore trade and avail themselves of the trade and navigation of the Yangtse river. Han-Kow containing it is alleged, and of which I have no doubt, over one Million of Souls and the resources of a large and remunerative commerce-is situate full seven hundred miles

miles from Shanghai, and to get there with vessels on the Yangtze it is necessary to pass Nankin; which latter place is the seat of the Rebel Government and has been now for nine years.

By others, it is thought, the Imperial Authority, if not forced to use its resources in self defense against the Allies, could of itself in course of time put down the rebellion and restore peace in the Province.

Whether another effort will be made by the Rebels to take the city of Shanghai, I am now unable to judge. I think, from present appearances, they will not do so for the present.

I have the honor to be

Your obedient Servant

A PROCLAMATION.

UNITED STATES CONSULATE,
SHANGHAI, CHINA, August, 1*st* 1860.

To all whom it may concern. Greeting.—

The Intendant of Circuit at this port informs me, that foreigners have been at Soochow and Kya-ding and associated with a class of Chinese people whom he calls rebels, and conveyed to them arms, guns, powder, and opium, and frightened the people, and that the foreigners are in the habit of resorting to the neighboring cities for recreation. He asks that orders be issued prohibiting these acts.

I have to remind citizens of the United States that it is the settled policy of their Government to respect all treaty stipulations, and not to interfere in contests arising between the people and their rulers. It is a violation of the treaty to furnish munitions of war or to do any of the acts complained of by the Intendant of Circuit. You can only pass and repass in the immediate neighborhood of the anchorage or settlement, as provided in the Treaty.

For the observance of these treaty stipulations on the part of its citizens, the United States of America has pledged its public faith. It cannot keep that public faith unless it requires its citizens to observe these stipulations. Moreover, citizens of the United States enjoy the favor of these stipulations by the permission and grace of their own Government; and if they are unwilling to comply with the regulations which their own Government has thought proper to make, during their sojourn in China, the only alternative for their Government is, either to make them obey the laws and regulations governing their residence here by the meting out of suitable punishment, or compel them to leave the Empire.

I, therefore, to the end that all the treaty stipulations may be observed by the citizens of the United States within this Consular Jurisdiction, hereby warn and command one and all to observe and obey and not to violate them, nor to take any part or side in any contest that may arise between the people and rulers, but to attend to their own legitimate business, so that, not only the public faith of our Government may be kept inviolate without resorting to punishment, or banishment from the Empire, but also that each and all of you may be the better enabled to claim a reciprocal observance of the treaty stipulations on the part of the Government of China, by whomsoever administered, and the people thereof.

I hope and believe that such will continue, as heretofore, to be the disposition of my fellow-countrymen, one and all, in this far-off sojourn from our native land. But, if otherwise, it only remains for me to add that, the law must take its course. And, for this purpose and to this end, I hereby summon and command the aid and assistance of all ships and all other vessels sailing under the flag of the United States, armed or unarmed, as well as all other of their citizens.

The authority, by virtue of which this Proclamation is issued, is appended.

[L.S.] Given under my hand and official seal at Shanghai, China, aforesaid, the day and year above written.

W. L. G. SMITH,
U. S. Consul.

The President of the United States of America to all who shall see these presents greeting:

Know Ye, that reposing special trust and confidence in the abilities and integrity of William L. G. Smith of New York, I have nominated, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, do appoint him Consul of the United States of America, for the port of Shanghai in China, and such other parts as shall be nearer thereto than to the residence of any other Consul or Vice Consul of the United States, within the same allegiance, and do authorize and empower him to have and to hold the said office, and to exercise and enjoy all the rights, preeminences, privileges and authorities to the same of right appertaining, during the pleasure of the President of the United States, for the time being. And I do hereby enjoin all Captains, Masters and Commanders of ships and other vessels, armed or unarmed, sailing under the flag of the said States, as well as all other of their Citizens, to acknowledge and consider him the said William L. G. Smith accordingly. And I do hereby pray and request His Majesty the Emperor of China, His Governors and officers, to permit the said William L. G. Smith fully and peaceably to enjoy and exercise the said office, without giving, or suffering to be given unto him, any molestation or trouble: but on the contrary, to afford him all proper countenance and assistance, I offering to do the same for all those who shall in like manner be recommended to me by His said Majesty.

[L.S.] In testimony whereof, I have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the city of Washington, the thirtieth day of March, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight and of the Independence of the United States of America the Eighty second.

SHANGHAI, NOVEMBER 4TH, 1860.

PEKING.

RATIFICATIONS OF THE TREATY OF TIEN-TSIN EXCHANGED AND CONVENTION OF PEKING SIGNED AND RATIFIED.

THE REMAINS OF THE MURDERED PRISONERS INTERRED IN THE RUSSIAN CEMETERY.

THE EMPEROR'S PALACES OF YUEN-MIN-YUEN UTTERLY DESTROYED BY THE BRITISH FORCES.

H. M. S. Nimrod, Commander Wynniatt, arrived from the Peiho this morning, with dates from Peking to the 27th ultimo. Passengers, H. B. Loch, Esq., and Major Hon. A. Anson with Despatches, Lord Robt. Grosvenor and Mr. C. S. Compton.

The following is a précis of the important news received:—

The Ratifications of the Treaty of Tien-tsin were exchanged, and the Convention of Peking signed and ratified in Peking on the 24th, by the Earl of Elgin and Kincardine, H. M. Special Envoy, and Prince Kung, Plenipotentiary of the Emperor of China. The same ceremonies on the part of the French were performed on the 25th.

The palaces, &c., of Yuen-min-yuen, the summer residence of the Emperor, were utterly destroyed by fire by the British Forces, on the 18th and 19th.

The remains of the four murdered prisoners, Messrs. T. W. Bowlby, De Normann, Lieut. Anderson, and Private Phipps, were buried in the Russian cemetery outside the walls of Peking, on the 17th October. The sum of 300,000 taels has been exacted from the Chinese authorities by the British, for the friends of the deceased, and as compensation to some of the survivors for their sufferings. There is no doubt that Capt. Brabazon, R. A., was beheaded with the Abbé Luc, on or about the 21st September, after the battle near Tung-chow, when the Tartar General, whose prisoners they were, having been mortally wounded, ordered their execution.

The following is the substance of the Convention signed at the Office of the Board of Ceremonies, on the 24th Oct.

In Art. 1, the Emperor expresses his regret at the misunderstanding occasioned by the affair of Taku.

Art. 2, revokes the consent given by the Queen, to the conditional suspension of her Treaty right to place a minister in permanent residence at Peking. Her Majesty resumes the exercise of her full right to keep a minister there, or when it suits her.

Art. 3, provides the payment of an Indemnity of 8,000,000 taels, in all; that is 4,000,000 more than the sum already granted by the Treaty of Tien-tsin. Tien-tsin is to pay half a million by the 30th November. Canton 333,333 taels; less the advances towards the Shameen site, by the same day. The rest is to be paid out of the Customs, one-fifth of the revenue of which will be taken quarterly till the whole is paid.

Art. 4, opens Tien-tsin to trade.

Art. 5, removes the interdict on emigration to the British Colonies or elsewhere, and provides that regulations shall be fixed for the protection of the emigrant.

Art. 6, cedes to the British Crown the portion of Cowloon now held under lease, and makes it part and parcel of the Colony of Hongkong.

Art. 7, provides for the immediate operation of the Treaty of Tien-tsin, and this Convention of Peking.

Art. 8, provides for the promulgation of both the above instruments throughout the Empire.

Art. 9, provides for the immediate evacuation of Chusan by the British force now garrisoning it. The rest of our army in China will remain at Tien-tsin, or Ta-ku, or Tung-chow, or Canton, or at all these places, as the British Government shall decide.

The Allied Armies were to commence marching from Peking on the 1st inst. for Tien-tsin, which place will be held by about 3,000 of the British, and some of the French force.

Lord Elgin went into the city of Peking to reside, on the 27th.

United States Consulate
Shanghai China
November 21st 1860

Sir

I regret to inform you that I find it out of the question to remain another summer at this port without a change of climate. The incessant and hard labor, both physically and mentally, which I have found it necessary to undergo since I reached here in 1858 in conjunction with this unhealthy climate has impaired my health; and I am fearful, from the amount of quinine I have taken to break up and keep off the prevalent fever from time to time, my constitution may be affected. I have not been absent a single day since I reached here.

I therefore respectfully ask for leave of absence for one year. I wish to leave here the first of April next, as it is plain enough to my mind that I can not go

UNITED STATES CONSULATE,
SHANGHAI, CHINA, January 4th, 1861.

To all whom it may concern.

The following despatch has been received at this Consulate from the United States Legation in China, and is published for the information of all whom it may concern.

By direction of Flag Officer, C. K. Stribling, Chargé d'Affaires ad interim, I hereby notify all whom it may concern that the Tariff published by Lord Elgin referred to in said despatch, is the same as agreed to at Shanghai, November 8th, 1858, by Mr. Reed then U. S. Minister, and has been ratified by the President and Senate, and goes into effect at once, and is now equally binding upon the United States and China, their citizens and subjects.

W. L. G. SMITH,
U. S. Consul.

LEGATION OF THE UNITED STATES,
U. S. Flag Ship Hartford,
HONGKONG, December 25th, 1860.

SIR.—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th instant.

By a reference to the Archives of the Legation, I find that the three Treaty powers (Great Britain, France and the United States.) all agreed to the Tariff of duties, to be levied upon Exports from, and Imports into China, as specified in the Treaty and Convention, proclaimed by Lord Elgin, under date of November 20th, 1860.

The operation of the Tariff was suspended by Mr. Ward during the pendency of the difficulties between the Allied powers, (France and Great Britain) and China, except the reduction of tonnage dues. These difficulties having been adjusted, and peace restored; the Citizens of the United States are entitled to all the benefits of the Treaty of 1858; the Tariff being a part of that Treaty, it of course goes into effect at once, the cause of its suspension by Mr. Ward no longer existing,

By the 30th Article of the Treaty signed at Tientsin on the 18th of June 1858, any right, privilege, or favor, conferred by any subsequent treaty upon any other Nation at once enure to the benefit of the United States, its public Officers, Merchants and Citizens. If therefore, the recent Convention and Treaty, proclaimed by Lord Elgin, confers any right, privilege, or favor upon the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty, not conferred by the treaty of Tientsin above referred to, they at once enure to the Citizens of the United States, as if conferred by said Treaty.

The Tariff agreed upon by Lord Elgin and the Chinese Commissioners at Shanghai, November 8th 1858, was adopted and agreed to by Mr. Reed the United States Minister then in China, and appended to his Treaty, and ratified by the President and Senate.

Whatever publicity is necessary you will please to give to the Tariff, as a part of the Treaty between the United States and China.

I have not a copy of the Tariff to send you, but as it is the same as that proclaimed by Lord Elgin, you may consider it as a true copy, so far as the interests of the Citizens of the United States are concerned.

Merchants and Citizens of the United States residing in China, are doubtlessly aware of the Proclamation of Lord Elgin, announcing the re-establishment of peace; and have seen the Convention, Treaty and Tariff as published by him. It is not therefore, perhaps, necessary, to do more than to notify them, that, that Tariff is the same as agreed to by Mr. Reed and equally binding upon the United States and China, their Citizens and subjects.—I am, respectfully your obedient servant,

(Signed). C. K. STRIBLING,
Flag Officer Chargé d' Affaires ad interim.

United States Consulate.

Shanghai China, December 20th. 1860.

Sir,

The 9th. Article of the British Treaty with China rides for the issuing of passports into the interior of China by nsuls countersigned by the local authorities. The 23 Section of Act of Congress entitled an act to regulate the diplomatic Consular systems of the United States approved August 18.
provides that in any Country where a legation of the United tates is established no person other than the diplomatic repre-ntative of the United States at such place shall be permitted to ant or issue any passport, except in the absence therefrom of such presentative.

It has occurred to me that perhaps the passport referred in the Act of Congress does not embrace the passport referred to the British Treaty but refers to passports to travel in foreign untries, or in other words in a Country different from that in hich it is issued.

I have to request your instruction on this subject, as itizens of the United States at this port, desire these passports.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

I have to day received your letter of the 20th instant.

As the 9th Article of the British treaty provides for the issuing of passports into the interior of China by Consuls countersigned by the local authorities, the same right is secured to Citizens of the United States by the 30th Article of the Treaty of Tientsin; with the right of the Citizen to travel into the interior, the duty of a Consul to grant a passport follows as a matter of Course.

The restriction in the Act of Congress approved the 18th of August 1856 in granting passports, is in my judgement set aside, as regards China, by the British treaty, as the Condition and by whom the passports are to be issued, are provided for in the Treaty.

You are hereby authorized to grant passports in accordance with the 9th Article of the British treaty; and will be careful not to grant passports to "Nanking and other cities disturbed by persons in arms against the Government" neither are you to grant them to "Crews of Ships."

For your guidance in granting passports, I refer you to

W. L. G. Smith Esq.

Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your despatch of the 9th of October last relative to an iron safe that has been forwarded to the Consulate at Ningpo, and informing me that I am at liberty to transfer to that Consulate the iron safe belonging to this Consulate, and to retain here the one forwarded for Ningpo, if I thought it better adopted to this office.

In reply I beg to say, that I do not consider the iron safe forwarded for Ningpo a proper safe for this Consulate. It is too large and heavy and I presume it would break down any wooden floor: and so long as the offices are rented according to the present system and not owned by the Government, and

Wm Henry Prescott
Assistant Secretary of State
Washington

and therefore subject at any moment to be changed, the iron safes, in my judgment, should not be larger than the one belonging to this Consulate. Indeed, they might be a size or two smaller and therefore lighter and answer, I think, just as well. In this damp climate they are only serviceable, according to my experience, as the depositary of valuables. Books and papers are subject to be injured when remaining within them for any very great length of time on account of the dampness. I, therefore, do not make the transfer of Safes, but still have in my possession the one belonging to this Consulate, subject to further order from the Department of State.

I have this day advised Mr G. W. Fish the Acting U.S. Consul at Ningpo of my views in in relation to this matter in a despatch of this day's date, and in it also informed him that the iron safe forwarded for Ningpo is now at Russell & Co. having been transferred there from Dent & Co. as I am informed by direction of Mr Bradley the late U. S. Consul at Ningpo. I think it is the largest iron safe I ever saw.

I have the honor to inform you that D. F. Coombs and E. R. Goodrich citizens of the United States left this port to go into the interior on the 18th of December last to be absent eleven days. They have not returned nor been heard from. Search has been made for them by private citizens, by myself, and by the Chinese Authorities, and cannot be found. I have no doubt but that they are dead and so report them.

Mr Coombs was a sail maker and Mr Goodrich was a Clerk, and both of them belonged in Charleston in the State of Massachusetts.

I herewith enclose a Notice of their decease which

I think, from the best information I can get, that they had fire arms to sell to the Rebels and were bound to Soo Choo, a city in the possession of the rebels about 80 miles from here, and in which business they had no right to be engaged and to which place they had no right to go.

May 8. 1861

Sir

I have the honor to inform you that, by virtue of the late British treaties with the Government of China, the following ports have been opened in addition to those previously opened, namely, Chin-Kiang, Kiew-Kiang, Hankow, Tang-Chow, Tientsin, New-Chwang: and I hear that British Consuls have been appointed for each of said ports.

The first three above named are situate on the Yangtsze River. Chin-Kiang is about one hundred miles from this port, Kiew-Kiang about three hundred miles from this port, and Hankow about eight hundred miles from this port. The remaining three are situate to the North viz: Tang-Chow off Chefoo bay about four hundred miles miles from this port; Tientsin on the Peiho river about sixty miles from its mouth, about one hundred miles from Pekin, and about six hundred miles from this port; New Chwang is situate about two hundred miles north of the Peiho river and about eight hundred miles from this port.

American Vessels and citizens of the United States are now constantly visiting and trading at these newly opened ports. In my judgement, Consuls should be appointed to reside at each of them by the United States.

As all of them are nearer to this port than to the residence of any other United States Consular Authority, I take the liberty to advise you of the above.

I have to request that Consuls be appointed for each of the above named ports, by

The port of Nankin situate on the Yangtsze river between Chin-Kiang and Kiew-Kiang and about two hundred miles from this port is not yet opened under the Treaties. It is still in the possession of the Insurgents.

Sir,

I perceive by a "notification" signed by Harry S. Parkes Esquire C.B. on the 9th instant. that a "provisional" arrangement has been made for opening the Yangtze River to British trade.

Our Countrymen will no doubt be disposed to engage in trade upon the River immediately; and as the "Provisional Regulations" made by the Authority of Sir James Hope K. C.B. cannot be applied to American Vessels or Citizens of the United States, You are hereby authorized to give papers to vessels wishing to trade upon the river, these papers may be as nearly Conformable to "Consular passports" as the case admits of; specifying the description of vessel, Masters name, number of Crew, number and description of arms, and quantity of Ammunition. UNITED STATES CONSULATE, SHANGHAI, CHINA, May 28th, 1861.

To all whom it may concern.

The following despatch and enclosure therewith have been received at this Consulate from C. K. Stribling, Flag Officer, Commanding U. S. Squadron in the East Indies, and are published for the information of all whom it may concern.

W. L. G. SMITH,
U. S. Consul.

(Despatch.)

U. S. FLAG SHIP "HARTFORD,"
SHANGHAI, May 28th, 1861.

SIR,—I enclose herewith "Extracts from a Communication addressed to the Taeping Authorities" and an Extract from their reply, assenting to all the points submitted for their acceptance. You will please to have these extracts published for the information of our Countrymen, who are interested in the trade upon the Yang-tsze and interior of China.

The Yang-tsze, from Woosung to Hankow, is not safe for Chinese vessels; the banks of the river are held indiscriminately by Insurgents and Imperialists; neither can be said to command it. While this state of things exists, the trade will be in the hands of foreigners, who now have the right to navigate the river to Hankow. I do not think there is any danger to be apprehended on the river at present. But there are so many lawless parties in the Country, that great care should be used by unarmed vessels in navigating the river, to prevent surprise. When vessels are unavoidably detained at places not opened to trade they should be careful to do nothing to offend the inhabitants of the villages or country. Respectfully, Your obedient Servant,

(Signed) C. K. STRIBLING,
Flag Officer, Commanding
U. S. Squadron in the East Indies.

W. L. G. SMITH ESQ.,
U. S. Consul, Shanghai.

(Enclosure.)

Extracts from a Communication addressed to the Taeping Authorities by Flag Officer STRIBLING, Chargé d'Affaires ad interim.

U. S. FLAG SHIP "HARTFORD,"
May 4th, 1861.

Points to be submitted to the Taeping Authorities for their acceptance.

By recent arrangements at Pekin, the right has been conceded to British ships of navigating the River Yang-tsze for the purpose of trade, immediately. By the Treaty of Tien-tsin between the United States and the Imperial Government, this right at once enures to the benefit of Citizens of the United States, who desire to trade upon the river.

The Consul of the United States at Shanghai will issue passes to all vessels authorized to trade upon the Yang-tsze, directing them to exhibit these passes to the Superintendent of Customs at Nankin, or any person authorized to attend to the business of foreigners.

In the event of the Taepings taking any place where American Citizens are engaged in trade, they are expected to protect such persons, their property, and those in their employment, and permit them to continue their business or to leave the place with their property and persons in their employment, if they think proper to do so.

In like manner, if there should be any American Citizens in such places, teachers of Religion, they are to be protected, together with those under instruction in their schools, as well as their property, including Chapels, Hospitals, School Houses, and all their property of whatever kind.

If Citizens of the United States commit offences on shore, they are not to be punished, but to be made prisoners, and sent to the nearest Consul of the United States, with a full statement of the offence committed, for punishment, according to the Laws of the United States; and in like manner, if any Chinese of the Taepings, commit an offence on board an American ship, he shall be delivered up to the Authorities for punishment.

The Consuls of the United States are authorized to give Citizens of the United States passports to travel into the interior of the country. If any American Citizen should be in the territory of the Taepings, it is expected that he will be respected and protected, as if the passport were directed to them.

The above points being conceded, they shall be promulgated as speedily as possible throughout all the possessions of the Taepings.

Extract from the Reply of the Taeping Authorities to the above.

We respectfully accede to the stipulations.

When merchant vessels pass, let them be examined by the Assistant-General in charge of the Heavenly Custom House, and such as have passports from the Consuls of your Honorable Country shall be at once allowed to proceed. Should your Honorable Country's vessels be passing (Nankin) in the night they must come to anchor off the tower at the mouth of the creek on the North Bank of the Yang-tsze, and as soon as it is daylight, after having been examined at the Custom House, they will be allowed to proceed.

BRITISH CONSULAR NOTIFICATION.

The undersigned, Her Britannic Majesty's Consul, has received a despatch from Harry S. Parkes, Esq., C.B., &c., &c., &c , enclosing for publication the subjoined Notification, and requesting him to give effect to the Provisional Regulations which form one of its annexes. The undersigned accordingly hereby gives notice that, pending instructions from Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Chief Superintendent of Trade, he is prepared, in so far as the action of this Consulate is concerned, to give full effect to the "Provisional Regulations for British Trade on the Yang-tsze River" which are now made public.

THOS: TAYLOR MEADOWS,
H. B. M.'s Consul.

British Consulate, Shanghae, 18th March, 1861.

NOTIFICATION.

REFERRING to the Notification of His Excellency the Earl of Elgin and Kincardine, K.T.G.C.B., &c., &c., &c., dated, Hongkong, Jany. 20th, 1861, informing Her Majesty's subjects in China, of the measures then being taken to give effect to the arrangement concluded between Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary and the Imperial Commissioner, for opening the Yangtsze river to British trade, the undersigned is now authorized by His Excellency the Naval Commander-in-chief to declare the river, above Chinkiang and as far as Hankow, to be open in accordance with that arrangement, to British vessels, under the accompanying Regulations; which are provisional until they have received the sanction of His Excellency the Honorable Mr. Bruce, C. B., and the Peking Government.

His Excellency, the Naval Commander-in-chief, has furnished the undersigned, for the information of Her Majesty's subjects in China, with the annexed extracts of a communication, made by Commander Aplin of H. M. S. Centaur on the 1st inst., to the Insurgent Authorities at Nanking, and of their reply, together with a copy of the Pass to be used by British vessels passing Nanking. It will be observed from this correspondence that the free navigation of the river by British vessels is not to be interfered with by the insurgents, but that all intercourse held with any place in their possession, will be conducted under such conditions as the Insurgent Authorities, with the approval of the Senior Naval Officer, shall think proper to prescribe; and the undersigned is further desired to call attention to that regulation of the Insurgent Authorities, which is concurred in by the Commander-in-chief, requiring merchant vessels not to approach nearer to Nanking at night than the Pingshan Pagoda, nor to enter at any time the Tsaouhea Creek.

The positions at present selected for Consular Establishments on the river above Chinkiang are the cities of Hankow and Kiukiang, and His Excellency, the Naval Commander-in-chief has stationed vessels of war at these ports, as well as at Chinkiang and Nanking, for the purpose of protecting British interests, and giving due support to Her Majesty's Consuls in the performance of their duties.

HARRY S. PARKES.

H. M. S. Coromandel,
Yang-tsze River, March 9th, 1861.

PROVISIONAL REGULATIONS FOR BRITISH TRADE IN THE YANG-TSZE RIVER.

ART. I.—Every British vessel wishing to proceed up the Yang-tsze River beyond Chinkiang, must apply to the British Consul at Shanghai for a Pass, to be called the "River Pass," authorising the vessel to trade as high as Hankow, which will be issued by the Shanghai Customs, and only by the Customs at that Port, on the application of the Consul, as soon as the Customs are satisfied that all the dues and duties due upon the vessel and her cargo have been paid. The Consul will deliver the River Pass to the vessel, and will retain in his hands her Register or Sailing Letter, and on the return of the vessel to Shanghai, the River Pass must be surrended to the Consul, and returned to the Customs.

ART. II —Every vessel proceeding up or down the River, shall be permitted to carry for her protection, such an amount of Arms and Ammunition as shall appear to the Customs at Shanghai to be reasonable, and this amount of Arms and Ammunition shall be entered in a certificate to be called the "Arms Certificate," which shall be delivered by the Customs, through the Consul, to any vessel applying for the same; and the said vessel shall be bound to bring back to Shanghai all the Arms and Ammunition she is thus authorised to carry, or, if she have expended any portion of them during her voyage up or down the River, then to account for the manner in which such portion has been expended. Any vessel returning to Shanghai without any portion of the Arms or Ammunition stated in her Arms Certificate, and being unable to account satisfactorily for such missing portion; or being discovered trafficking in Arms, Munitions or Implements of war, at any Port or place in the River, or carrying any Arms or Munitions in excess of the amount stated in her Arms Certificate, is liable to have her River Pass withdrawn, and to be prohibited from trading upon the River.

ART. III.—The Shanghai Customs may, if they see fit, appoint one or two of their officers to accompany the vessel as far as Chinkiang, and the master of the vessel is bound to receive these officers on board, and to provide them suitable accomodation, but not their food or expenses. Trading of any kind between Shanghai and Chinkiang, being an infraction of the XLVII Article of the Treaty of Tien-tsin, may be punished as is therein provided.

ART. IV.—No vessel is allowed to pass Chinkiang without anchoring, and being reported to the British Consul and the Customs at that Port. The master, on arriving at Chinkiang, must deliver to the Consul his River Pass, Arms Certificate, Shanghai Port Clearance, and a list of all Passengers and persons not forming part of the registered crew on board, and if he wish to proceed up the River immediately, the Consul will forward all the papers above named to the Customs, who may board and inspect the vessel, and if the Customs have no claim upon the vessel, or there be no cause for her detention, they will at once grant a new Port Clearance, and give this, together with the River Pass and Arms Certificate to the master, who will then be at liberty to continue his voyage. But if the stay of a vessel at Chinkiang exceed twenty-four hours, she must be reported within that time to the British Consul, and by the Consul to the Customs, in the manner provided in the XXXVII. Article of the Treaty of Tientsin, and a manifest of her cargo and a copy of her passenger list furnished to the Consul; and if she land any portion of her cargo, or take on board any cargo, she must do so in the manner provided in the said Treaty; and the Consul will retain in his possession her River Pass and Arms Certificate, until she receives her Port Clearance from the Custom House, and is again ready to depart. Any British vessel proceeding up the River above Chinkiang without a River Pass, Arms Certificate, and Chinkiang Port Clearance, duly obtained as provided in these Regulations, commits infringement of the XLVII Article of the Treaty of Tien-tsin, and is liable to the penalty therein provided.

ART. V.—Every vessel must be reported to the British Consul at Kiukiang and Hankow, within twenty-four hours after her arrival at either of those ports, and the master must lodge in the hands of the Consul the vessel's River Pass, Arms Certificate, and Chinkiang Port Clearance, and must deliver to the Consul a manifest of her inward cargo, and a list of all passengers and persons not forming part of the registered crew on board; and the Consul will retain in his possession the River Pass, Arms Certificate, and Chinkiang Port Clearance, until the vessel is again ready to depart, and until he has received the manifest of her cargo outwards, and a list of all passengers and persons not forming part of her registered crew, and intending to leave the Port in the said vessel; and before returning the said Papers to the master, the Consul will endorse on the Chinkiang Port Clearance, the respectives dates on which it was lodged in his hands, and returned to the master. No report however need be made in the case of a vessel passing Kiukiang without anchoring, nor is it requisite that a vessel passing that Port without discharging or taking in cargo, should deliver a manifest to the Consul.

ART. VI.—Every vessel coming down the river must anchor at Chinkiang, and be reported to the Consul, and cleared by the Customs, in the manner provided in the IV Article of these Regulations; and the Customs may, if they see fit, appoint one or two of their Officers to accompany the vessel to the Port of Shanghai, where the vessel is bound to proceed, without touching at any other port or place, and these Customs officers must be received on board, and treated in the manner provided in the IIIArticle of these Regulations.

ART. VII —The Payment of all Import and Export duties due by all British vessels, duly authorised to trade on the River above Chinkiang, being secured to the Chinese government by Articles I, IV, and VI of these Regulations, Articles XXXVIII, XXXIX, XL, and XLI of the Treaty of Tien-tsin, will not apply to such vessels, after they have passed Chinkiang inwards, and any vessel so authorized may therefore discharge or load legal merchandise, at ports or places on the river above Chinkiang, without being required to obtain Custom-house permits, or to pay Export duties until the vessel returns to ~~Chinkiang~~ Shanghai.

ART. VIII.—The Manifests of Cargo that are to be delivered to Her Majesty's Consuls at the various Ports, as provided in these Regulations, must be made out in the form of a summary, stating the quantity of each description of goods on board, either in dimensions, weight, or value as the case may be.

ART. IX.—The breach of any of these Regulations may be punished by the withdrawal from a vessel of her River Pass, and by prohibiting her from further trading on the river, and if this penalty be awarded when on the river, she may be sent or taken to Shanghai, and also, and in addition to the preceding penalty, by any other pains or penalties that may be incurred by the same offence for a breach of Treaty. And it shall be competent for any of Her Majesty's Consuls, to detain any vessel trading on the river under these Regulations, against which any other complaint or claim may at any time be laid, until the same shall have been heard and determined by the Consul, and his judgment carried into execution.

ART. X.—These Regulations may at any time be suspended or annulled, added to or amended, as, and in whatever way, may be judged expedient by H. B. Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary in China, and the High Chinese authorities in communication together.

HARRY S. PARKES.

Extracts of a communication made by Commander Aplin of Her Majesty's Ship "Centaur," Senior Officer in the Yangtsze River, to the Taeping Authorities at Nanking, on the 1st March, 1861, by Order of Vice-Admiral Sir James Hope, K.C.B., Commander-in-chief; and of the reply of the Taeping Authorities thereto.

(Signed) J. W. M. ASHBY, Secretary.

"I am directed by the Commander-in-chief of the Naval Forces of Her Majesty the Queen of England, in China, to acquaint you:—

That by the recent arrangements at Peking, the right has been conceded to British Ships, of navigating the River Yang-tze for the purpose of Trade, immediately, and that he has stationed me with the Centaur at Nanking, in order that they may exercise that right, with entire freedom to themselves, and without molestation to others.

That in order to effect this object, every British Vessel passing Nankin will communicate with, and receive a pass from me; a copy of which will be sent, for your information, to whomsoever you may think proper to name for the purpose, and the Commander-in-chief expects you will order all persons acting under your authority, to be instructed duly to respect my passes, and not to interfere with the Vessels carrying them.

That in the passes the Vessel will be fully described, the Master will be directed invariably to carry his Flag, and not to use his Guns, or other Arms, except in self defence; and will be duly informed of the regulations under which he may go ashore, or conduct Trade at the several places in your possession.

That the Commander-in-chief has seen the letter written by Mung, Prince of Tsan, and Lin, Prince of Chang; and that the request contained therein—that all persons wishing to enter the City from British Ships shall receive directions to give notice of the same to the Superintendent of Customs, and that no person shall visit your armed encampments;—shall be duly attended to.

That the Commander-in-chief further expects, that if your Forces attack and take either of the following places, viz:—Chinkiang, Kiukiang, Hankow, or any others in the River at which British subjects may be settled or trading, all such British subjects will be unmolested both in their persons and property: that on the other hand the Commanders of the Vessels of War stationed there, will receive directions in no way whatever to interfere in the hostilities which may be going on, except for the purpose of protecting their countrymen, should it be necessary to do so.

That if British subjects commit any offence on shore, they are not to be punished by the Taeping Authorities, but are to be made Prisoners, and sent on board the Centaur, with a full statement of the offence they have committed, which shall be duly dealt with according to British Law. Should a Chinese of the Taepings commit an offence on board any British Ship, he will in the same manner be sent to the authorities on shore for punishment.

I am directed distinctly to acquaint you, that I am in no degree responsible for the conduct of any other Vessels, except those which are British, and that as far as I am concerned, you can deal with all others in any way you may think proper."

Reply of Taeping Authorities.

"They agree unreservedly to all the conditions of the above communication.

In the event of their attacking Chinkiang, Kiukiang, or Hankow, they will give previous notice to the British Authorities if possible.

British Vessels coming to Nanking, should not approach nearer than the Ping-shan Pagoda at night; and the Tsaouhea Creek can only be used by Vessels of War."

Form of Pass.

Pass granted to Mr. (A.B.) Master of the British (Steamer or Vessel C. D. Barque) Rigged (340) Tons Burthen (2) Guns—No. of her Crew (20.)

1.—Your Vessel is permitted to Navigate the River for the purposes of Trade, and on presenting this Pass to any of the Taeping authorities you will not be interfered with by them.

2.—You are permitted to hold intercourse with the shore, or to trade only under such regulations as their authorities shall think proper to prescribe, subject to my approval, and wherever a British Vessel of War is stationed, you are not to communicate with the shore except with the sanction of her Commander.

3.—You are to be careful that your English Red Ensign is hoisted always.

4.—You are not to use your Guns or Arms except in self defence, for which I shall hold you personally responsible, and you are not to visit any armed encampment of the Taepings.

5.—You are to be careful that when the shore is visited, either by yourself, your officers or crew, such conduct is observed as will avoid giving offence to the inhabitants.

Sir

I have the honor to enclose you a copy of a letter received at this Consulate from "W. Howard Chairman, J. Priestley Tate Treasurer and W. Shepard Wetmore, Municipal Council of Shanghai 1861" (enclosure No 1); and I beg to call your attention to the resolution therein referred to, and to request from the Government of the United States "such a special authorization of the Code as shall establish its legality beyond question and so enable each Consul to enforce its provisions on every person under his jurisdiction".

I also herewith enclose to you a printed copy of said "Code" or Land Regulations as they are commonly called here

To William H. Seward
Secretary of State.

here according to my information, (Enclosure No 2.).

The Municipal Council above referred to, is, as I understand it, the Committee appointed under Article 10 of the said Land Regulations.

I think that the 11th Article of the American Treaty of Tientsin contemplates that citizens of the United States are to receive and enjoy the Municipal protection of the Chinese Authorities; and that, in view of this, the Consular authority does not extend to the taxation of citizens of the United States or their property for municipal protection or privileges, without their consent. It is to supply this defect as well as to remove all doubt as to Consular Authority in this matter, that the special Authorization above mentioned is

is requested, as I understand it. And I beg most cordially to recommend and request that the same be granted and confirmed by the Government of the United States agreeably to said resolution referred to in enclosure No 1.

Messrs. Howard and Tate, I believe, are British subjects, and Mr Wetmore is a citizen of the United States.

I have the honor to be

I have the honor to enclose you an account against this Consulate which I have paid for publishing treaty and for blank forms connected with the trade on the Yangtsze river, by order of the United States Legation, amounting to $74:$\frac{99}{100}$ (enclosure No. 2) also voucher therefor (enclosure No 1).

As this disbursement does not come within the usual disbursements, I have thus made out a separate account, and as you will perceive it runs through several months. I hope the same will be found correct. The certificate of the Ministers will be found on enclosure No 1.

I have this day drawn my draft on you for $74:$\frac{99}{100}$ at

June 18th 1861

Sir

Mr Frederick Denkins the U. S. Interpreter for this Consulate appointed by the President at a salary of fifteen hundred dollars per annum has said to me that he intends to leave for the United States the ensuing autumn. He belongs in Charleston in the state of South Carolina. His wife left here for the United States in March last.

It is an impossibility for the Consul at this port to transact the public business without the aid of a good Interpreter. The business with the Chinese Authorities is constant and large, and frequently involving great pecuniary amounts: and the amount of business increases.

The translations, both written and verbal, must be made with great care. Otherwise, there is a misunderstanding at once. The least sound of a word wrongly uttered changes the idea.

In order that there may be no interruption in the transaction of the public business with the Chinese Authorities when the present Interpreter leaves for home, I have to request that the Consul at this port be authorized to employ an Interpreter at and after the rate of Fifteen hundred dollars per annum, and be authorized to draw for the same on the Secretary of State or other proper officer of the Government, until otherwise ordered.

United States of America,

Be it remembered, that at the District Court for the City and County of Philadelphia, held at Philadelphia, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in the United States of America, on the First day of April in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty six (1856)
Samuel R. Gayley a Native of Ireland exhibited a petition praying to be admitted to become a Citizen of the United States, and it appearing to the said Court that he had declared on Oath before the Prothanotary of the Supreme Court of the State of Delaware for New Castle &c. on the twentieth day of July A.D.
1850 that it was bona fide his intention to become a Citizen of the United States and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state or sovereignty whatsoever and particularly to the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland of whom he was at that time a subject; and the said Samuel R. Gayley having on his solemn Oath declared and also made proof thereof agreeably to law, to the satisfaction of the Court, that he had resided one year and upwards within the State of Pennsylvania, and within the United States of America upwards of five years immediately preceding his application; and that during that time he had behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same, and having declared on his solemn Oath before the said Court, that he would support the Constitution of the United States, and that he did absolutely and entirely renounce and adjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign prince, potentate, state and sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland of whom he was before a subject. And having in all respects complied with the laws in regard to Naturalization, thereup the Court admitted the said Samuel R. Gayley to becom Citizen of the United States, and ordered all the proceedings foresaid to be recorded by the Prothonotary of the said Co which was done accordingly.

In witness whereof I have hereunto affix
Seal of the said Court at Philadelphia, t 1st day of April in the year one thousand hundred and fifty six and of the Sovereign and Independence of the United States America the Eightieth 80th

Sir

I have the honor to inform you, that a Deputy Consul for this Consulate is necessary. The official business is very large and increasing. The opening of trade to Japan added to the business, and now the opening of the Yangtsze River and the Northern Ports to trade makes another large addition. The business here in China consists of ship's business, Judicial business, Municipal business, and a constant correspondence with the Chinese Authorities especially at this port and I have no doubt but that the business at this port equals all the other ports in China.

No person fit to perform the duties of a Deputy Consul, in my judgment, would take the

Hon. William H. Seward
Secretary of State.

the position under a salary of $2500. per annum. The expenses of maintaining a living here are greater than at any other place in the East; and, if the Deputy has a man of a family, the above mentioned salary would not leave him much margin.

I, therefore, earnestly recommend and request, that a Deputy Consul for this Consulate be appointed at a salary of $2500. per annum to be paid by the Government of the United States, at the earliest moment.

Sir

I have the honor to enclose you Repot of the Import and Export Trade at this Port for the half year ending 31.st day of December 1860 (enclosure No. 1). The report of the Superintendent of Customs for the half year ending June 30.th 1861 has not yet been published.

Ref sent to Dept Dec 18

The opening of the Yangtsze River has added to the arrivals and departures of vessels at this port. A large portion of the vessels clear for and report from ports on the coasts of China and Japan and from ports in the Yangtsze river. Some go to Siam and return laden with Rice. The arrivals from and departures to ports in the United

United States are few. Many vessels of under 500 tons burthen, have been trading to and fro in these seas many months, and some for several years. There are now several Steam vessels which ply up and down the Yangtze Kiang River between this port and Nankow.

As a consequence, I suppose, there is less inland (over land) transportation than before and much merchandize carried in Foreign bottoms which formerly was carried in Chinese vessels.

The Insurgents still continue their head quarters at Nankin. Their Chief Ruler Taeping Wang - there resides; and, as I understand it, from thence issue the orders to their various armies and places in their possession. I do not think that they have made much headway for the past eight months.

there has been some fighting in the Provinces of Shantung and Chili, but according to my information the Imperial forces have come off best in several encounters. The Government appears to be constantly making efforts to put down the rebellion; but, in my judgement the status of the Empire in this civil war is about the same as a year ago.

September 30. 1861

Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your despatch of 30th of May last in relation to Mr Garrett May, and in reply beg to say, that, upon inquiry, I learn that a person by that name belonged to the U.S. ship Hartford and deserted therefrom at this port in the summer of 1860; and, although the ship offered a reward for his apprehension and steps taken to find him, he was not found nor have I been able to get any tidings of him. I am satisfied he is not at this port, and I am of the opinion that he has not been here since he deserted said ship. About the time he deserted, sailors frequently deserted and usually went into
